

Miles DiPaola

Los Angeles / DJ / Vinyl, digital + hybrid

GRAMMY Museum, Los Angeles. Photo: Daria Taylor Photography.

Miles DiPaola is a Los Angeles DJ and founder of Savvy Sounds. His work includes the Delta One Lounge at LAX and a reception at the GRAMMY Museum. His open-format sets move across genres and decades, from deep cuts to crowd favorites, on vinyl, digital or a hybrid setup.

Open format / Across genres + decades

Watch the guest moment (35 seconds)

A guest moment at Delta Sky Club, LAX.

Watch the full Delta Sky Club set

Listen to the GRAMMY Museum rooftop set

Press photographs, bio, listening links and technical advance are included in the asset bundle.

Please route booking enquiries through the agency or booker who shared this kit.

Technical advance

Miles DiPaola / Confirmed for each booking

We confirm the setup with your venue before the date. These are the details to agree with the booking contact.

Set format	Digital, physical vinyl or hybrid, as agreed for the booking.
House equipment	Please share the equipment models, available inputs and a clear photo of the booth.
Vinyl details	Confirm cartridge and stylus provision, a stable booth surface and space for records.
Sound	Confirm the house-system connection, monitoring, room-volume control and any venue sound limits.
Space + power	Confirm the booth dimensions, power location and weather cover where needed.
Access	Load-in route, parking, setup window and an on-site contact.
Supplied equipment	Only the equipment included in the booking's agreed quote.

Headshot

Turntable portrait

Press photographs

Headshot, turntable portrait and live GRAMMY Museum photograph are included in the asset bundle.

Studio photos supplied by Miles DiPaola. Confirm photographer credit with the booking contact before editorial use.